SAFETY CHECK ON DRIVERS

City police and California Highway Patrolmen in the East Bay will be specially alert for unsafe drivers and cars during the holiday season, it was announced today by Albany Police Chief Ralph Jensen, head of the Bay Area Traffic Executives' Council.

He said that one or more traffic checks by city police departments would supplement stepped-up enforcement measures between now and the New Year to keep irresponsible persons from killing themselves and others on the streets and highways.

Both city and state police have recently been retained in the detection of the drinking driver, and city officials will be particularly watchful for this offense, Jensen said.

On day-to-day enforcement and traffic checks, officers will also be on the lookout for bad brakes, poor tires, and ineffective windshield wipers, according to the head of the Bay Area organization of traffic officials.

City and state police are determined to halt the holiday traffic tragedy of persons needlessly and carelessly killed on our streets and highways," Jensen said.

Traffic court judges and citizen organizations like the Bay Area Chapter of the National Safety Council and the California Traffic Foundation are backing stepped enforcement 100 per cent, Albany police chief said.

Carl Mermer, president of the Albany Chapter, National Safety Council, added a note of urgency to the announcement of tightened traffic law enforcement. He called attention to the fact that the National Safety Council will begin counting the holiday traffic deaths this evening at six over the last 102 hours ending at midnight today.

During the 78-hour Christmas weekend last year, 44 persons were killed in California and 609 in the nation.

Last Rites Held Yesterday for Ammon A. Cook

Funeral services were held yesterday for Ammon A. Cook, 64, past commander of Albany Post 292, American Legion. He died Monday in his Albany home at 1515 Solano Ave.

A resident of Albany for 17 years, Mr. Cook was a native of Pennsylvania. He fought in eight major battles during World War I.

Surviving are his wife, Amelia E. Cook, a registered nurse, who is now a patient at Albany Hospital; two daughters, Mrs. Jean Wolliston of Palo Alto, and Mrs. Mary Ellen Bryan of El Cerrito; his mother, Mrs. Mary Ellen Kehoe of Albany, and a brother, Harold B. Kehoe of Berkeley.

Members of Albany Post 292 conducted funeral services at Ellis-Olson Mortuary. Final rites were held at Golden Gate National Cemetery in San Bruno.

Chief Pimental Suggests Ways To Avoid Fires

Fire Chief Fred Pimental of Albany says that every year, from a few days before Christmas, to the week following New Year's, a plague of fires rages up and down the country. Many of these fires result from the extra hazards which exist only during the holiday season and from carelessness that would not be tolerated at any other time. Little careless acts, that seem so unimportant at the time, cause these holiday fire tragedies.

These tragedies are all so needless, the Chief says, and if the following simple rules are followed you can make this and every Christmas a fire-safe Christmas.

- 1—Delegate one of the family to take all wrappings from the house immediately. The fireplace is a poor place to burn these. It is much safer to burn them in the incinerator or put them in your metal trash barrel.
 - 2—Don't allow smoking near the tree, amidst decorations or when the present are being opened.
 - 3—Plan ahead of time what you would do if fire did break out.
 - 4—Keep open flames away from the tree. Do not hook up electric tinsel or similar toys under the tree.
 - 5—Turn out your Christmas tree lights if no one is in the home. Also if any extensive holiday wiring is planned, call a competent electrician; don't do it yourself unless you are qualified.
 - 6—Above all if you use your fireplace be sure that the screen is in front of it at all times.
- Albany citizens are to be commended for the past year's safety record, the Chief adds, and it is with this in mind that officers and members of the Albany Fire Department wish everyone a very Merry Christmas and best wishes for a prosperous New Year.

Bicycle Licenses Due and Payable

The 1957 bicycle licenses will be issued daily between 8 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. at the rear of Albany Police station, starting Wednesday, Dec. 26. Bicycle riders are reminded to bring their 1956 receipt to save time in issuing renewals. Those not wishing to come to the station will have the opportunity to get their licenses at either Marin or Cornell Schools at dates to be announced later. Deadline for obtaining license without payment of penalty will be March, 1957.

Fireman Freddy Says:

May you enjoy a very happy, prosperous and fire-safe holiday season.

CARL O. OLSEN
Newly-elected President of the East Bay United Crusade for 1957.

Wallace Named United Crusade County Director

Sid Wallace, president of Sid's Stores in Albany, was elected to the board of directors of the Alameda County United Fund at the annual meeting of the organization, Wallace, who was named for a three year term, was chairman of the Commerce and Industry Division of this year's Crusade drive in Albany and is also on the board of directors of the Albany YMCA, a Crusade agency. Carl O. Olsen was elected president, and Joseph R. Kuykendall, registered chairman of the board.

The latest Crusade report also shows that Albany has raised nearly $2,000 more than was raised last year. Chairman Wilfred Harpham said that $12,016 is now on hand, or 92.8 per cent of goal.

The United Crusade campaign within Alameda County will raise $144,000 more than last year—an increase of 8 per cent. This good news was told more than 250 volunteer leaders from all parts of the county last Wednesday at the annual meeting of the United Fund. "Although we will fall about five per cent short of reaching our total goal in Alameda County, the new money raised will mean more money for our agencies in 1957," Olsen said.

Vandals Destroy Xmas Figurines

A gain this year vandals have destroyed the carol singer figurines set up by the Albany Solano Merchants Association at Solano Ave. and Key Route Blvd.

The heads of the three figurines were stolen late Tuesday night. Damage to the Christmas decorations was set at $100. Anyone having information leading to the arrest of the culprits is asked to notify Albany Police.

Police finally traced down the missing figurines yesterday as a result of an anonymous phone call. They found them at the corner of Ninth and Coolidge Sts.

I wish to express my gratitude and sincere thanks to both the Albany Fire Department and the Albany Police Department for their promptness, kindness, and consideration in the event of the fatal accident suffered by my husband, James Dokter.

Words cannot express my deep appreciation to all my many friends for their loving kindness at this sad time.

Sincerely,

Dads, Scouts To Remove Old Xmas Trees

A new service to the citizens of Albany has just been announced by the Marin School Dads' Club executive board. Marin Dads propose to clear away all the old, dry Christmas trees in town on Jan. 5th, as a public service to try to avoid fire hazards and other dangers inherent in leaving the old trees lying around. In this project Marin Dads have happily been offered assistance by it's sponsored Boy Scout groups, Troop 42 and Cub Pack 3; and in return for such help, Marin Dads are asking for small and sizeable donations for this work, proceeds all going to the Scout groups. This year will be the first such clearance drive attempted, but the project already has received enthusiastic approval from city officials and departments.

In organizing a service of such magnitude, Marin Dads started with a nucleus of the active executive board, which included representation from the Scout Troop and Pack. The members are: Rolland Edwards, president; Bob Nehls, Treas.; Ed Combs, Carl Fosselies, and Grafton Geering, vice presidents; Don Thomas, secretary; Eugene Blank, Pack 3; Robert Rogers, Troop 42; and Eugene Baker, principal of Marin School. Other members of Marin Dads who have offered their assistance and optimistic approval are: Mayor Lewis M. Howell, Inspector Arthur Smith, Councilman Jerome Blank, Frank Ellsworth, Joseph Maita, Don Healy, Milton Porter, Warren Patton, John Tilbury, Bill Barnsdale, Richard Rodda, Samuel Crewdson, and Frank Turner.

To help cover the city of Albany within as short a time as possible, Marin Dads are asking for all other members to get in touch with them.

BUDGET FOR NEW CENTER APPROVED

The Albany City Council Monday night approved a budget for the next six months to cover improvements in athletic equipment, maintenance of the buildings and grounds, and the operation of the newly acquired property at the old Codornices Village site.

Included in the new budget is the sum of $2850 to maintain the University Park athletic fields, $4184 for the Community Center, a director at a salary of $385 a month, a part-time director at $1.65 an hour, $250 for athletic supplies, and $150 for craft supplies. The total figure is $7035.

The budget was only approved after a long discussion, and then only by a vote of 4 to 0. Mrs. Zahn passing her vote on the plea that the figure was too high coming on top of an already approved budget for the Recreation Department of $59,000.

As originally presented by Emmett Devine, Superintendent of Parks and Playgrounds the figure for the period to next June 30 totalled something more than ten thousand dollars. Councilman Blank finally obtained the floor. "We should be willing to make funds available for our new park and community center," said Blank. "For years we have been trying to get a park and playground in the western portion of the city. We have it now and just can't permit it to die."

Then Blank, as chairman of the finance committee, proceeded to go over the items one by one, trying to trim as he went along. The final result was the figure given above.

Commenting on the budget and the funds necessary to meet it, Blank said: "We are far ahead of our normal sales tax figures. The State estimates the sales tax will bring us in upwards of $200,000 a year and of this we have allocated to our park and recreation fund ten per cent, which should far more than take care of the demands as indicated in the budget."

In further action the council approved the hiring of Anthony Kalberer as Community Center Director at a monthly salary of $385. Kalberer has been employed at the Center on a temporary basis. Councilman Donahue reported that Kalberer had been doing an excellent job at the Center, and that while he was being named as "Director," the actual work was quite varied and covered many other activities. The vote was 4 to 0. Mrs. Zahn again passing her vote.

The council also approved the request of City Engineer Mayne N. McAuley to move his offices from their present location on the first floor at the City Hall to the second floor in offices previously occupied by Gerald Browne, Director of Civilian Defense, who is moving his offices to one of the Community Center buildings where he will have storage space for material and supplies offered by the government, but for which there would be no room in the city hall building.

The Health Department is scheduled to move into the offices vacated by the city engineer, which will provide room in addition to the offices, for a Baby Clinic.

The date of Jan. 14 was set as the date for the official hearing on the assessment of costs for sidewalk repairs.

The council also authorized the hiring of a part-time secretary for the Traffic and Safety Commission which meets approximately once a month. The cost would be $7.50 for each meeting.

Bea Nathan of the Library Board requested approval of closing the public library at 4 o'clock on Dec. 24. This was approved.

The council approved the request of the city engineer for permission to arrange a stand-by maintenance program for the street department to care for flood, or other emergencies.

Johnny Makes Dessert in an Instant

LIKE JOHNNY, your young man will be pleased with new flavors in Jell-O Instant Pudding—Lemon and Cream. So good, so easy to make, too. It takes just one to whip up the pudding mix. Then just five minutes to set in pretty glass dishes—no wonder he's so pleased with it. When served with a bowl of thawed frozen sliced strawberries the whole family will say it's a "yummy" dessert.

LEMON INSTANT PUDDING WITH SLICED STRAWBERRIES
2 cups cold milk 1 box quick-frozen strawberries, thawed
1 package lemon instant pudding mix

Pour milk into mixing bowl. Add pudding mix slowly with egg beater just until well mixed, about 1 minute. Do not overbeat; mixture will be thin. Pour at once into dishes and let stand to set—takes 5 minutes. Spoon sliced berries over top of pudding. Makes 4 or 5 servings. (Adapted from Jell-O recipe book)

Selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy includes the following (482:19): "Jesus was the highest human concept of the perfect man. He was inseparable from Christ, the Messiah—the divine idea of God outside the flesh. This enabled Jesus to demonstrate his control over matter. Angels announced to the Wisemen of old this dual appearing, and angels whisper it, throughout faith, to the lingering heart in every age."

A CHRISTMAS FABLE . . .

'Twas the night before Christmas, just about a year ago.
Not a creature was stirring, 'cept a mouse named Peter Po.
Peter had a knotty problem, 'cause he hadn't had the thrift to save enough to give each friend a little Yuletide gift.
He'd hoped to give them lettuce, a rare treat for a mouse.
And that's what he was searching for, all throughout the house.
Then suddenly he saw some! But when he tried to nudge it
A trap went snap on Peter's tail—alas, he couldn't budge it.
Well, after several days Peter finally did pull free,
But much too late to give his friends a Christmas gift, you see.
MORAL: Don't get caught short of lettuce (people call it money) at Christmastime. Join Bank of America's Christmas Club now, and start saving for next year's shopping!

For Holiday Glamour Try A Tetrizzini

An elegant buffet dish which makes excellent use of planned holiday leftovers is Turkey Tetrizzini, a lyrical combination of turkey, mushrooms and a pale cream sauce smoothed with evaporated milk and livened with sherry.
Glamorous as the famous soprano from which it takes its name, Turkey Tetrizzini teams beautifully with a tart salad, hot coffee and a pretty dessert for an easy and effective buffet. The evaporated milk adds creaminess and serves as the perfect blending ground for the delicate turkey and mushroom flavors.

TURKEY TETRAZZINI

- | | |
|-----------------------------------|-----------------------|
| 1 can (3 or 4 ounces) mushrooms | 1/4 teaspoon Tabasco |
| 1 cup evaporated milk | 2 cups coarsely diced |
| 2 tablespoons butter or margarine | cooked turkey |
| 2 tablespoons flour | 1 to 2 tablespoons |
| 1/2 teaspoon salt | sherry, optional |
| 1 chicken bouillon cube | 2 cups (4 ounces) |
| 1/2 teaspoon monosodium | cooked macaroni or | | glutamate | spaghetti |

Drain mushrooms; reserve liquid. Add enough water to liquid to make 1 cup. Combine with evaporated milk. Melt butter in saucepan. Remove from heat and blend in flour, salt, bouillon cube and monosodium glutamate. Gradually add evaporated milk mixture and stir over low heat until mixture thickens and comes to a boil.
Add Tabasco, turkey, mushrooms, sherry and macaroni, and bring to serving temperature. If desired, sprinkle with chopped ripe olives.

Native Daughters
Celebrate Xmas
Holiday Season

Over 60 members of Albany Parlor No. 260, Native Daughters of the Golden West, met last week to celebrate the coming of Christmas.
Miss Linda Kendall was chairman of the evening. The tables were beautifully decorated with tall red tapers, snow-covered evergreens, and a center piece of a smiling Santa Claus. A program of Christmas music, directed by Miss Lee Ann Stallone, started the evening. Gifts were exchanged. Each member brought potholders to be donated to the kitchen of the Native Daughters Home in San Francisco, and a large Christmas basket was filled for a needy Albany family.

A miniature Christmas tree contest was held, directed by Yvonne
A. Walkup. A number of lovely little trees were entered, with the first prize being received by Dorothy Mae Gibbs; her entry was an old fashion Christmas tree with toys in miniature. Mildred Vinson received second prize, Edith Sherriff, third, and Leona Collier, fourth prize.

The trees were given away, with the amount derived to be sent to the NDGW Sue J. Erwin Scholarship Fund. Sue J. Erwin was a past grand president of the Native Daughters and a Berkeley educator.
She was principal of a Berkeley school at the time of her death.

Albany Parlor will not hold a meeting on Dec. 26th. The next meeting will be Jan. 9th, 1957.

Citizen Protests
Careless Drivers
On Solano Ave.

In a letter to the Albany Times
Mrs. John Durland of 840 Santa Fe Ave. has written in protest of careless motorists on Solano Ave. and of dog owners who allow their pets to run loose in an area where they are likely to be injured or killed.
The letter follows:

"Yesterday a little black cocker spaniel lost his life. Somewhere a child or owner grieved. And he need not have been hurt. No one loved him quite enough to keep him out of danger and he went out on Solano Ave. near Santa Fe where cars rush toward the lights.

"Someone's car struck him, not intentionally, of course. He cried and tried to get across to safety, but so hurt that his mind was not clear and he zig-zagged again across the avenue, his piteous cries of pain rending the air. Then slowly he died.

"Every day those who live nearby, or shop in this area, see dogs almost hit in the heavy traffic and you can't help wondering: 'Why do owners who profess to love their pets let them run loose near to such traffic heavy streets as Solano and Santa Fe?

"Yes, somewhere an owner is grieving. But the grief must be greater because he is responsible for the suffering of that little dog.
Why not keep him at home and take him out on a leash? It is such fun to be a companion to a dog and he trusts you. He has no way of knowing that he is not safe in the street, but you know it."

While fall and winter months in other climates mean frosty and freezing weather, in Albany the end of the year heralds the beginning of the Camellia Japonica bloom.

Camellias, though aristocrats of the garden, are very soil and climate tolerant flowers. Give Camellias an acid soil, plant in a mixture of peat moss, oak leaves, rotted manure and top soil if your garden is alkaline. Provide perfect drainage, mulch

"How old am I?"
—asks Mrs. Louis Means, 341 Sunkist Lane, Los Altos

No doubt about it: The brightest decoration in many a home this Christmas will be Mother! Isn't it nice so many of today's mothers are so trim and youthful-looking?

One big reason is modern household appliances. They free women from heavy chores that used to rob them of their youthful beauty.

Take Mrs. Means: Mother of five, she leaves most of her hard work to labor-saving appliances. She's thirty-five. Here's the beauty of it: With gas and electricity so cheap in California you can run a houseful of appliances all day for half the cost of most popular liquid make-ups.

Most Valuable Players: The Albany Lions Club recently honored the "Most Valuable Players" of the Albany High Football team at a banquet at Spenger's in Berkeley. Seated, left to right, are Tackle Bob Millinich, and Fullback Johnny Hunter. Standing, left to right, are Assistant Coach Charlie Clark, Cal Frosh Coach Rod Franz and guest speaker; Head Coach Bill Savage and assistant Craig Ortlieb.

Thomas to Head March of Dimes Drive in Albany

William Thomas again will head Albany's participation in the annual March of Dimes campaign to provide polio funds for the Alameda County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Thomas, active in March of Dimes work for several years, also is chairman of the fund-raising advisory committee for the Alameda County Chapter of the NFIP.

The polio appeal, a month-long drive, will be held here and throughout the nation in January. Proceeds will be used to help complete what March of Dimes officials describe as "the unfinished business of polio."

Pure heaven for the youngsters is this unusual Two-Tone Fudge — creamy rich chocolate, teamed with the pleasant saltiness of peanut butter. It's all from one simple basic recipe combination of peanut butter, evaporated milk, caramels and sugar. To one-half add peanut butter, and to the other half, add semi-sweet chocolate morsels. Evaporated milk lends smoothness and rich flavor to this versatile fudge. The high milk solid content of evaporated milk helps prevent formation of "sugary" crystals, resulting in velvety texture without beating. Make this wholesome candy in squares, swirls dropped from a spoon on waxed paper or foil, peanut clusters, or rolls made by shaping cooled fudge into logs and rolling them in salted peanuts.

TWO-TONE FUDGE

1 cup evaporated milk
2 cups sugar
¾ pound (14) caramels
½ cup peanut butter

*¾ cup semi-sweet chocolate morsels
½ cup peanut butter

Combine evaporated milk and sugar in 2-quart saucepan. Add caramels. Place over low heat and cook, stirring constantly, until sugar is dissolved and mixture comes to a boil. Increase heat and boil 4 minutes, stirring constantly. To 1½ cups of the mixture add the semi-sweet chocolate morsels and stir until smooth; turn into greased 7 or 8-inch square pan. To remaining mixture add peanut butter and stir until smooth; turn into pan over chocolate mixture. Chill until firm; cut into squares.

YIELD: Approximately 2 pounds.

*Use remaining chocolate morsels to decorate fudge.

Students of Albany High School Give 2½-Hour Variety Show Program

Using pictures for the 1957 yearbook — the Cougar — as their theme more than 200 Albany High School students presented their annual Variety show to the public on Nov. 16.

The 2½ hour program was directed by Ernest Douglas, AHS band and orchestra leader, and Mrs. Pauline Toschi, physical education instructor.

Peter Olson and Linda Rinna shared the master of ceremonies honors and introduced: "Pictures, Pictures!" the opening song with Ester Carlson, Noel Clemons, Sue McGuire, Sue Olson, Sydney Woolworth, Joan Thompson and Julie Harris.

"By Heck," a novelty soft-shoe dance by Joyce Bevery, Rosie Burbage, Frances Brown, Carol Davidson, Pat Goeck, Marcia Jenne, Michel Jo Mauss, Sandra Ortiz, Jorgine Smith and Bethann Wood. "I Could Have Danced All Night," a vocal solo by Tommy Talerico.

"Fondango," a solo Spanish dance by Betty Johnson. A humorous sketch with Jon Clem, Jackie Nelson and Larry Fogelstrom. "I Don't Know Why," a vocal number by Lorraine Welandier, Susan Olson, Jim Conway and Jackson Prichard. A dramatic dialogue between Toni Frederickson and Merle Eaton, "Dancing Dolls," a dance solo by Agnes Peterson. "Mexican Rag Doll" a dance with Frances Brown, Betty Johnson, Rosie Burbage and Jorgine Smith.

"Nately You," a duet with Beverly Marks and Vicki Marcy. Tambling by Larry Anderson. "Chocolate Drops," a novelty tap dance by Earline Ro-no. "Dixie-land Combo," played by Del Misenor, Ken Price, Charlie Marks, Herb Tamm, Tom Schmidt, Jackson Prichard, Gary Noe and Bob Smeardon.

The Charleston Revue, "Let's Do It Again," with Joyce Bevery, Rosie Burbage, Jean Cooper, Rose Jarvis, Janice Zavattaro, Gwen Mason, Nancy Ny, Jorgine Smith, Bethann Wood and Carol Millinich. A humorous monologue by Jon Clem. "Friendly Persuasion" song by Lorraine Welandier.

"Sisters," a skit with Rowene Apodaco, Connie Ashton, Noreen Cook, Pat Duffy, Lois Luchessa, Kathy Lynch, Carol Magid, Frances McConally, Karen McCauston, and Nancy McKeown. "Oklahoma Ramblers," a skit with Alicia Goddie, Duayne Goddi, Jimmie Lottrell and Richard Poll.

The final scene was a group of Hawaiian numbers including: "Yoi and I," a duet by Margie Stahlman and Jeannie La Rosa; "Alekoiki," a drill rhythm dance, Joanne Maxwell, Joanne Leahy, Cathy Dame, Michel Jo Mauss, Joyce Bevery, Carol Davidson, Rosie Burbage, Betty Johnson, Marcia Jenne and Jorgine Smith.
